News & Notes

As I wrote in our weekly email, we had a server crash on December 22. Our data was properly backed up, but we weren’t able to restore the elderly software that streamlined many processes. Initially we had to do a lot of things by hand again. Since then we have been updating and customizing new software. Fortunately our website was updated last year so there were no issues with that. The staff here has really put in the extra hours and deserves high praise for working extremely hard to keep all the orders going out on time. I want to thank YOU for your patience and understanding through this transitional period. We still have a little way to go, but in the end we’ll have a much improved system.

Your Website Account: If you place your order as a guest on our website, we cannot keep ANY information for you. Next order you will have to re-enter your address, phone number, etc. If you create an account, this information will already exist the next time you order. You can also track all orders you’ve placed. With the server crash, we no longer have your history before December 22. But from Dec. 22 forward, you can access all your history with us if you are a call-in/mail-order customer or have signed into your account to place an order.

I’ve devoted two full pages here (29-30) to Images Magazine and Everett Raymond Kinstler. My former partner in Bud Illustratd Books, Jim Vadeboncoeur, Jr., produced these from 2001 to 2014. Each one was a labor of love, a way to share his love of art with others. We’ve taken over all his remaining copies, aside from a few he saved for his own website. Too late to list, I just found a few more copies of Images #1-4. (continued on page 28)

Over 100 drawings and watercolor paintings. Signed! Our Highest Recommendation. One of our favorite artists illustrates one of our favorite fantasy tales, the 19th century narrative poem written by Chris Rossetti, father of PRB artist D.G. Rossetti. Over 100 drawings and watercolor paintings are packed into an 88-page full color book, an oversized 10x12 inch hardcover with a printed dust jacket and an introduction written by the one and only Charles Vess. This is mind-bogglingly good.

Rayyan has poured his heart and every stop and gone way beyond mere illustration. This is a masterpiece, and I think the finest work I’ve ever seen from him.

101 GREAT ILLUSTRATORS FROM THE GOLDEN AGE 1890-1925

Jeff A. Menges. The most comprehensive book of its kind, this gorgeous edition presents more than 500 reproductions by famous and lesser-known artists from the heyday of book and magazine illustration. Featured artists include Edmund Dulac, Macfield Parrish, Howard Pyle, Arthur Rackham, N. C. Wyeth, and many others—but also lesser-recognized greats like Will Crawford, Helen Stratton, Edward Penfield, E.J. Sullivan, Charles E. Chambers, 101 in all. Several examples of each artist’s finest illustrations are accompanied by well-written biographical comments and career notes.

ART OF JON WHITCOMB

Limited to 1000. Highly Recommended. By Daniel Zimmer. A spectacular new art book from The Illustrated Press. 300 full color images, many from original paintings and drawings, plus rare photographs, and lots of magazine covers, advertising pieces, and story illustrations. Whitcomb was a pioneer in the switch from oil to gouache. He zoomed in on people, usually pretty young women, and became one of the top illustrators from the ’40s to the 1960s, a major contributor in Collier’s, McCall’s, Cosmopolitan, Good Housekeeping and other major magazines.

ART NOUVEAU GRAPHIC MASTERPIECES: 100 Plates From “La Decoration Artistique” Reprinting 100 plates from La Decoration Artistique, 1904-10. Recommended. By Henry Guédé. Designers, collectors, and Art Nouveau aficionados will be delighted by this original collection of 100 plates of decorative full-color graphics. These authentic images, reprinted from the now extremely hard-to-find periodical La Decoration Artistique, published in Paris in the decade before World War I. They constitute some of the rarest and best material printed during the Art Nouveau period. Calla, 2017.

BATTLE OF THE SEXES Recommended. By Franz Von Stuck, Jeannine Mammen, Edward Munch, Jean Benner et al. Edited by Felix Krämer. Dark, dark dark work of sex and violence. 140 works, including paintings, graphic art, photography, and film, trace the artistic investigations of ever-changing gender roles from the mid-1900s to the end of WWII. Essays cover such topics as Adam and Eve, the Femme Fatale in 19th century art, or sexual murder in the the Weimar Republic. A tough book to describe but eye-popping to examine. Weird, strange, outre! Prestel, 2017.

THE BOOK & PERIODICAL ILLUSTRATIONS OF ARTHUR HUGHES Highly Recommended. By Maroussia Oakley. The first detailed account of the work of this very important Pre-Raphaelite artist between 1855 and 1913. His two often-reprinted classics are George MacDonald's classic At the Back of the North Wind and The Princess and the Goblin. His wonderful artwork for Christina Rossetti's Sing-Song and Speaking Likenesses were notable for their witty accompaniment to her poetry and prose, matching the curiosity of texts created to amuse (or terrify) Victorian and Edwardian children. FRANK DICKSEE 1853-1928 His Art and Life Highly Recommended. By Simon Toll. The British Victorian painter and illustrator Frank Dicksee gets the full treatment, a history of his life and works with a catalog raisonné, many pictures previously unpublished. He was born with the first wave of Pre-Raphaelitism and he inherited the romantic spirit of the movement. If you like the work of fellow PRB members Waterhouse and Watts, this is your painter. Knights, beautiful ladies, mythology, in wonderfully beautiful paintings. He became one of the most popular artists of the late 19th-century, painting in a sumptuous and dramatic style. Antique Collectors Club, 2016.

GOLIATH
By Michael Friedlander. Art by Michael Ploog. Goliath is an oversized, 88-page richly-painted storybook for all ages. It follows the adventures of a small pre-historic family, the Ty clan. They live in very difficult times and face incredible dangers every day. Now they must embark upon an epic journey. Their strength and determination comes from their belief in stories passed down through the generations, that speak of giant Guardians that watch over them. Is that Goliath, the ape-creature? TRANSCENDENT LUXURY German Art Deco Poster Masterpieces 1912-1927
Recommended. Thomas Negovan. Rare and beautiful artworks from the Golden Age of Vintage Poster Art. During and immediately following The First World War, advertisers in Germany presented romantic elegance in a manner that bridged the sinuous lines of Art Nouveau and the hard lines of the Art Deco period to achieve a unique style that would inform the look of the century as an era of graphic design. This book presents a collection of gorgeous, beautiful, high resolution photographs that gives insight to the opulent aesthetics of the era. Guilt, 2017.

BLOOD QUEEN OMNIBUS
By Troy Brouillet and Dan Dickline. Art by Fritz Casas et al. Covers by Jay Anacleto. The complete saga of the Blood Queen, a dark fantasy reimagining of the infamous historical figure, Countess Elizabeth Bathory—and Dracula. When the king’s daughter suffers from a terrible and mysterious malady, Elizabeth—a young woman of untold power—is summoned. Thus begins a journey that will uncover secrets, reveal forbidden desires, and stoke the fires of war! Dynamite, 2017. Mature Readers.

MOBY DICK Chaboté
Recommended. A masterful adaptation of the timeless literary classic, faithfully and beautifully rendered by an award-winning artist. In striking black-and-white illustrations, Chaboté retells the story of the Great American Novel. Captain Ahab strikes out on a voyage, ob- sessively seeking revenge on the great white whale that took his leg. This hardcover edition collects both of the Vents d’Ouest volumes, printed in English for the first time. Wordless at times, this is powerful. Foreword by John Arcudi. Dark Horse, 2017.

PROJECT SUPERPOWERS The Owl
Recommended. By J. T. Krul. Art by Heubert Khan Michael and Alex Ross. A classic and actually quite good Golden Age hero is back in a very handsomely drawn story. Lost for fifty years in an ethereal limbo, the Owl of the 1940s has returned, cloaked in a winged costume and fueled by a fierce dedication to justice. In a violent and desperate modern world populated by strangers, having lost the woman he loved, will the Owl survive this frightening new reality, especially when a vicious new Owl Girl appears, staining his former partner’s legacy with blood? Dynamite, 2017.

SEVEN TO ETERNITY Volume 1
Collects #1-4, 2016. Highly Recommended. By Rick Remender. Art by Jerome Opeña and Matt Hollingsworth. Gorgeous, gorgeous art. I haven’t read this yet, but it gets my endorse- ment just for the detailed, dynamic, imaginative art—reminding me of Arthur Adams. Writer Rick Remender reteams with collaborators Jerome Opeña (Uncanny X-Force, Fear Agent) and Matt Hollingsworth (Tokyo Ghost, Wytches) to take you on a hard road through the strange fantasy world of Zhal. All men have surrendered their freedom for fear; now one last free man must choose. Image Comics, 2017.

WEIRD DETECTIVE The Stars Are Wrong
Collects #1-5, 2016. By Fred Van Lente. Art by Guiu Vilanova. The streets of New York have been plagued by a pattern of crimes too weird and bizarre for the average detective. Lurking in the evidence are shadows of loathsome horrors from beyond space and time, seeking to usher the unsuspecting into an unimaginable evil of the Old Ones. And the only man capable of fighting against the unspeakable terrors isn’t a man at all. Detective Sebastian Green is one of them—it takes a monster to catch a monster.” An intelligently weird detective mystery that oozes with action and humor.” Dark Horse, 2017.

WONDER WOMAN 77 Volume 2
Collects #3-4, 2016. By Marc Andreyko, Trina Robbins and Christos Gage et al. Art by Dario Brizuela and Cat Staggs. The Amazing Amazon will face Clayface on Paradise Island, elephant poachers in Africa, a mysterious cult in South America, and will even confront Gault’s Brain on his home turf: the realm of the mind! From terrorists on the high seas to a little girl’s last wish to a mix-up involving government spies and a super funky mixtape, there’s no problem Wonder Woman can’t solve. She’s a champion for all the good and—of the Universe! DC, 2017.

ALPHA FLIGHT Omnibus by John Byrne
With Chris Claremont et al. Art by John Byrne, Sal Buscema, Steve Ditko, Ron Wilson, Paul Neary, John Cassaday, Mike Mignola et al. Legendary writer/artist John Byrne steers one of his greatest creations to glory! From the pages of the X-Men, Canada’s premier super-team Alpha Flight takes in guest appearances and finally jumps into three years, all here, of their own title. Guardian, Shaman, Snowbird, Sasquatch, Aurora, Northstar, Puck and Marrina fight to protect Canada from injustice and evil—including the Master of the World, manicidal alchemist Diablo, and the terrifying Great Beasts! Marvel, 2017.

THE MILLION YEAR PICNIC
Recommended. By Al Feldstein and Jack Mendelson. Art by Will Elder. This collection includes all 15 of artist Will Elder’s humorous Panic stories (“The Night Before Christmas” got the first issue banned in the entire state of Massa- chusetts); all seven of his science fiction tales from the pages of Weird Science and Weird Fantasy (includ- ing two Ray Bradbury adaptations, “The Million-Year Picnic” and “The Million-Year Picnic”); and a special horror story that hasn’t been seen since its original publication more than 60 years ago. Marvel, 2016.
BATGIRL: A Celebration of 50 Years Recommended. By Shelly, Infantino, Gil Kane, Frank Robbins, Irv Novick, Brian Stelfreeze, Greg Land, Babs Tarr et al.Fifty years ago, Batgirl made her Million Dollar Debut taking down the nefarious Killer Moth. And thanks to the “new look” Batman in 1967, with art by the superlative Carmine Infantino, she became a regular part of the bat family fighters. Many young women have worn the cowl—from unassuming librarian Barbara Gordon to deadly mute assassin Cassandra Cain to teen vigilante Stephanie Brown—all have made their mark on the DC Universe. DC, 2017.

BATMAN GOLDEN AGE Volume 2 Batman #4-7, Detective Comics #46-56, World’s Best #1 and World’s Finest #2-3, 1940-41. Recommended. By Bill Finger, art by Bob Kane, Jerry Robinson and George Roussos. American popular culture has produced few heroic figures as famous and enduring as that of the dark, mysterious hero who debuted in 1939’s Detective Comics #27 as the lone “Bat-Man.” After his landmark debut and origin story, the Dark Knight was given many seminal elements including his partner in crime-fighting, Robin, the Boy Wonder, and such adversaries as the Joker, the Penguin and Scarecrow. Here are those first amazing stories. DC, 2017.

DOCTOR STRANGE Volume 3 Blood in the Aether Collects #11-16. 2015. Highly Recommended. By Jason Aaron. Art by levon Nowlan, Leonardo Romero. “Last Days of Magic” aftermath! How did Stephen Strange become the Sorcerer Supreme? And how has he lost it all? “Written and wonderfully illustrated...”-ComiConverse.com. “Wacky, definitely weird and wildly fun.”-AdventuresinPooTaste.com. I am in agreement with both these reviewers, this is wild, crazy storytelling from content to artwork. This retells his origins, when he was his weakest, and also takes us to present day, with all his foes ganggin up on him at once. Is he losing his mind? Marvel, 2017.

DISNEY MAGIC KINGDOM COMICS COLLECTION Collects #1, 2. Recommended. By Carl Barks. 60 years of Disney Parks—who knew? Now IDW is celebrating with decades of Disney’s classic Park-themed adventure comics! Carl Barks’ Scooge McDuck and Donald travel from the Mark Twain Riverboat to the top of the Matterhorn, then Mickey investigates the strange disappearance of the Country Bear Jamboree. And is that the real Pegleg Pete standing in for the Cast Member who plays him? “Oh, for gosh sakes!” IDW, 2016.

EERIE ARCHIVES Volume 23 Collects #109-113, 1980. Recommended. By Doug Moench, Larry Hama et al. Art by Paul Gulacy, Marv Wolfman. By John Broome. Art by Carmine Infantino and George Roussos. American popular culture has produced few heroic figures as famous and enduring as that of the dark, mysterious hero who debuted in 1939’s Detective Comics #27 as the lone “Bat-Man.” After his landmark debut and origin story, the Dark Knight was given many seminal elements including his partner in crime-fighting, Robin, the Boy Wonder, and such adversaries as the Joker, the Penguin and Scarecrow. Here are those first amazing stories. DC, 2017.

FLASH THE SILVER AGE OMNIBUS Volume 2 Collects The Flash #133-161. Highly Recommended. By John Broome. Art by Carmine Infantino and Murphy Anderson et al. More great comics maestros; more danger and Mac Tavish! The Spanish invasion brings brilliant stories that made Flash a fan-favorite for every DC reader. The amazing villains just kept coming—Captain Cold, Mirror Master, Pied Piper, Reverse-Flash, Heat Wave, Trickster, Weather Wizard and more. This collection also guest-stars Kid Flash, the Golden Age Flash, the Elongated Man (su-peer-sleuth Ralph Dibny), in his spin-off of Plastic Man), and Green Lantern. DC, 2016.

DOC SAVAGE #46 (James Bama Cover)
The Mystic Mullah and Terror Takes 7. Highly Recommended. By Lester Dent. The series is complete, but here’s a new James Bama variant cover. First, weird green soul slaves attack Manhattan, propelling Doc and his aides to faraway Asia—also reprinted as one of the earliest Bantam paperbacks with this exact Bama cover. Then, after a mystery box arrives at Doc Savage’s sprawling center, its enigmatic contents ignite a murder-chained group. Sanctum, 2017. DC46B, SC, 7X10, 128pg, Text/b&w $14.95

BATMAN ANIMATED SERIES NURSE HARLEY QUINN Statue Limited, 3,000! Recommended. Sculpted by Clayton Moore. I don’t recommend every statue, but this one is pretty cool. I may have to take one for myself. On the TV classic Batman: The Animated Series, Harley Quinn’s disarming grin often got as often as she wears her costume. This all-new 12-inch resin statue depicts one of her most memorable clothing swaps—a nurse’s disguise! Nurse Harley blows a kiss—hiding a tiny red heart in her hand. She’s wearing a delightfully short white mini-dress and standing on a black, red and white logo base. Numbered both on the base bottom and again on a full color Certificate of Authenticity. Diamond Select Toys, 2016. BANHQ. 12” tall, FC $150.00

BATMAN VS SUPERMAN Dawn of Justice Wonder Woman Statue Recommended. Sculpted by James Marsano. From the Batman v Superman: Dawn of Justice film comes this impressively detailed Wonder Woman statue, capturing the warrior demi-goddess standing tall and strong atop a Batman v Superman logo base. Sculpted by James Marsano and measuring 13 inches tall. Wonder Woman is made of poly resin and features an amazing likeness to actress Gal Gadot, who will star in the coming all-new Wonder Woman film! DC, 2016. BSWW. 13” tall, FC $125.00

DC BOMBSHELLS KATANA Statue Limited, 5000. Recommended. Designed by Ant Lucia. Sculpted by James Marsano. The third book in the Wild Adventures of Edgar Rice Burroughs Series. It includes three Tarzan novellas that take place in 1937-39: “Tarzan and the Fountain of Youth,” “Tarzan and the Cross of Vengeance,” and “Tarzan the Conqueror.” The three tales take place at Point Station, a remote English outpost near the Waziri homelands. Set during the advent of World War II, we see more and more European intrusion of Tarzan’s beloved Africa. ERB, 2017. TARRH. HC, 6x9, 380pg, Text/b&w $34.95

THE WILD ADVENTURES OF KING KONG VS TARZAN Deluxe Hardcover Signed Highly Recommended. By Will Murray. Art by Joe DeVito. Beast-God Versus Ape-Man. The year was 1933. Filmmaker Carl Denham had captured the stupendous monster he had dubbed “King” Kong. But that was only the beginning. Denham was determined to get the dethroned ruler of Skull Mountain Island back to America, and cash in on the greatest wild animal capture in human history. The saga of how Kong was taken in chains from his Indian Ocean kingdom to New York City has never been told. And how the Kong ends up in Tarzan’s Africa! Get ready for a wild ride! Altus, 2016. KKV. SC, 6x9, 478pg, Text/b&w $24.95

THE WILD ADVENTURES OF KING KONG VS TARZAN Deluxe Hardcover Signed Signed bookplate, bonus art and pages, hardcover in jacket. Highly Recommended. Includes the front cover art sans text as the backcover of the jacket. Signature plate signed by Murray and Devito, and signed in facsimile by Merian C. Cooper and Edgar Rice Burroughs (since both are dead)—but it makes for a fun signature plate. The bonus Afterword, exclusive to this hardcover edition, includes EIGHT small rough drawings of various cover ideas, as well as a larger, more finished study that ended up as the final cover painting. Altus, 2016. KVTHC. HC, 6x9, 492pg, Text/b&w $65.00

WOMEN OF DYNAMITE Red Sonja Diamond Eye Statue Limited, 5000. Recommended. Designed by Ant Lucia. Sculpted by Jack Mathews. The She-Devil with a Sword, poised on a snow-covered battlefield, is based on the original design of comics sensation J. Scott Campbell and sculpted by the talented Jason Smith. This most lethal warrior stands approximately 11.5 inches in height upon a decorative 5.5 inch wide base. Hand-painted on cold-cast porcelain with ABS details, this variant edition comes individually numbered as part of a Limited Edition run, and is packaged in a four-color box with a hand-numbered Certificate of Authenticity. Dynamite, 2016. Mature Viewers. WODRSD. 11.5” tall, FC $249.00

The Art of Ernst Haeckel
The Complete Plates
Recommended. By Rainer Willmann and Julia Voss. German-born Ernst Haeckel's work (1834-1919) was remarkable for its graphic precision and outright beauty, the very essence of Art Nouveau. From bats to box jellyfish, lizards to lichen, and spider legs to sea anemones, he emphasized the essential symmetries and order of nature, and found biological beauty in even the most unlikely of creatures. FICTION HOUSE FROM PULPS TO PANELS Recommended. By Mitch Maglio. Art by Matt Baker, Lou Fine et al. This looks to be a fascinating volume. I’ve personally collected Fiction House comic books and also their pulp-like Planet Stories, Jungle Stories, and Wings, for decades. They are one of the most interesting comics companies of their time. In their long history, Will Eisner and Jerry Iger were instrumental in their beginnings, creating characters and entire titles for them (Jumbo Com- ics, Hawk of the Seas, Sheena, Queen of the Jungle). Planet Comics still is THE sci-fi comic book title of the 1940s.

JEFFREY JONES IDYL I'M AGE
Highly Recommended. Jeff's 44 pages of idyl, which appeared as one-page vignettes in National Lampoon, AND the successor I'm Age, 36 more one-page "stories" that began in 1981 in Heavy Metal. Surreal, philosophical, strange, sexy strips starring ethereal naked ladies uttering deep truths...or nonsense. You decide. Grant, 2015.

KENT WILLIAMS VIA LACTEA
His drawings and paintings of the artist Soey Milk. Limited, 1470. Recommended. A beautifully painted, oversized collection of increasingly erotic images of William's "muse," artist Soey Milk. She poses for gentle portraits, complex illustrative tableaux, and ultimately highly erotic murals, often with other girls and hints of bondage and domination/submission. It's the most arresting collection of his art we've seen. ASFA, 2016. Adult Material. VIALH. HCW, 12x13, 64pg, FC

Edited by Thomas Levy. Text by Konstantin Jacoby. Mel Ramos (born 1935), one of the first artists to embrace Pop art, was best known for his glossy, flat paintings of idealized, voluptuous female nudes. We reveal what lies beyond! In the tradition of Dancer Girl, we unfurl a story of occult horror wrapped around sexy, outrageous good-girl artwork that has our girls in and out of showers, lingerie, bondage, skin-tight bodysuits, dresses, you name it. Red Giant, 2015. Mature Readers.

MILO MANARA’S Gullivera
Recommended. Loosely inspired by the adventures of Jonathan Swift’s Gulliver’s Travels, sensually twisted. After boarding an abandoned ship, the young and beautiful Gullivera encounters strange new worlds and exotic new people, from tiny Lilliputians (who tie her up, nearly naked) to teasing giants (who also seduce her) and a few other titillating stops along the way... Humanoids, 2016. Mature Readers. MGMH. HC with CD, 9x13, 68pg, FC $29.95

SEX AND HORROR The Art of Alessandro Biffignandi
Recommended. In the late 1960s-1980s, Italy went crazy for “sexy fumetti,” a home-grown genre of adult comics with a unique brand of twisted humor, violence, and sexuality. One of the most talented of the cover artists was Alessandro Biffignandi, whose work featured horror, fantasy, and sci-fi elements alongside plenty of naked females. Titan, 2010. Mature Readers. SEHO. SC, 9x10, 68pg, FC $22.95

SEX AND HORROR The Art of Emanuele Taglietti
New Printing. Recommended. This is one wild collection, erotic and kinky paintings! In the course of his acclaimed career in the 1970s and 1980s, Emanuele Taglietti painted more than 500 covers for such books as Zora the Vampire, Sukia, Mafia, and 44 Magnum. His iconic work, overflowing with violence and eroticism, is unforgettable. Korero, 2015. Mature Readers. SEH0. SC, 9x10, 160pg, FC $29.95

SOFT BRIDES FOR THE BEAST OF BLOOD
Recommended. By Norman Saunders, Norma McMan, John Dulillo et al. Humanoids’ adventure magazines were a form of pulp publishing which flourished in 1950s and 1960s America, pandering to the cruelty and lust of young men circumventing censorship by presenting comics with a unique brand of twisted humor, violence, and sexuality. One of the most talented of the cover artists was Alessandro Biffignandi, whose work featured horror, fantasy, and sci-fi elements alongside plenty of naked females. Titan, 2010. Mature Readers. LA PETITE MORT Female Masturbation, Fantasies & Orgasm By Bian Hanson. Photography by Santillo. The title means “the little death,” a euphemism for orgasm, but the women who exuberantly masturbate for Toronto photographer and who have their bodies on view in this book are as lively a bunch as you’ll ever meet. Santillo conceived the project eight years ago to include a thorough cross section of women: young to old, slim to thick, all of whom he sensually would be that each would decide and direct how she masturbated to climax while he captured the moment. Taschen, 2016. Mature Readers. LAPE. SC, 8x11, 208p. $29.99

NAKED DREAM GIRLS Recommended. By Dani Dare. Young dream girls—that is how you might view all of Dani Fisher’s models. This matches the unique Romantic Nudes: Beautifully Dressed Girls Stripping Naked in both its handsome large rectangular format, and the intimacy and beauty of the models. These had nearly sold out after one re-listing in our weekly email. We didn’t have these issues for several years. We still have very few of #5, but we now have a few more copies of #1-4, at least for a limited time. They’re all wonderful issues—Jim was selling these at premium prices—but now they are all original publication price. See our website for complete descriptions & scans of each issue. See Jim’s own website, www.boblb.com, for more than 100 excellent illustrated biographies of artists and illustrators.

Signed & limited, 700! The Artist’s Journey through Popular Culture 1942-62. Our Highest Recommendation. By Jim Vadeboncoeur, Jr. and Everett Raymond Kinstler. Kinstler’s work hangs in museums, boardrooms, banks, private collections, The White House, and in the homes of his clients and friends. Before portraiture became his life’s work, he spent the 1940s and 1950s honing his craft in comic books: Hawkman for DC’s The Flash, Black Hood and Black Terror for Standard, and dozens upon dozens of covers, inside cover contents pages, and stories for those delightfully lurid Avon titles like Eerie, Cowpuncher, Dalton Brothers, Jesse James, Strange Worlds, etc. And illustrating for pulp magazines like The Shadow, Doc Savage and Detective Tales!

He also went on to draw Zorro and Max Brand for Dell Comics, Classics Illustrated, the obscure but provocative White Princess of the Jungle, and pulp fiction paperback covers.

He’s well known to comic collectors for his brilliant line drawings on the inside front covers of hundreds of Avon’s early ’50s titles, dozens of which are reproduced here from the original art. He also encountered such notable figures as James Montgomery Flagg, Dean Cornwell, and James Bama. Over 375 illustrations accompany this biography, enlivened by Kinstler’s memories and the recollections of friends and editors. Limited to 700 copies, signed by artist and author, slipcased, with an extra full color signature plate and 16 extra b&w plates exclusive to this and only this limited edition. Most of these bonus images are also taken from the original artwork. Reproduction throughout is outstanding. JVJ, 2005.

Our Highest Recommendation. Edited by Jim Vadeboncoeur, Jr. This is Jim’s final issue. Aided by a successful Kickstarter program, it boasts 24 extra pages, metallic gold ink and spot varnish. In addition to the glorious cover, there are seven other rare Alphonse Mucha drawings, seven paintings by Charles E. Chambers from The Price of Love, a Coles Phillips fade-away girl, Sarah S. Stilwell’s illustrations for The Princess Porquois, a Willy Pogany Djer-Kiss ad, five fantastic Maxfield Parrish pieces, Hermann Vogel, Phillip Goodwin, Georges De Feure, Norman Lindsay as the featured pen artist and much more by many other artists, both famous and nearly forgotten. Highlight of the issue is eight lithographic color plates by the French Art Nouveau artist, Louis Chalon, each highlighted by an intricate, ornate and complex gilt ink. The book is specially designed with a special lay-flat binding to show all of these exquisite two-page spreads. Vadeboncoeur, 2011.

GREEN LANTERN The Silver Age Omnibus Volume 1 Collects Showcase #22-24 and Green Lantern #1-45, 1959-65. Highly Recommended. The first adventures of the greatest Green Lantern of all-time, Hal Jordan, are now collected in their entirety, starting with the first appearance in Showcase and followed by dozens of those wonderful 1960s issues of Green Lantern. These are the tales that introduced Hal Jordan and his induction into the Green Lantern Corps. Also included are the intros of the Guardians of the Universe, Star Sapphire, Sinestro and more! These classic stories from one of the greatest eras of comics are featured here in a gigantic omnibus edition. DC, 2017. GRL01H. HC, 1000pg, FC $85.00

JAY DISBROW’S MONSTER INVASION Chilling Archives of Horror Vol 19. Highly Recommended. One of the most bizarre, unique stylists from Pre-Code horror comics is cult-favorite Jay Disbrow. If there’s anyone close to this unknown genius, it’s Basil Wolverton. Working with friend, editor, and colorist L.B. Cole, Disbrow wrote and drew many fear-inducing tales specializing in terrifying demons, scary apparitions, and a horde of hairy monsters. Disbrow pushed the envelope with wilder and stranger stories. Includes an interview, photos, and special artwork. IDW, 2017. JDMIH. HCW, 9x11, 148pg, FC $24.99 $21.99

MICKEY MOUSE MYSTERIOUS MELODY HC Highly Recommended. By Bernard Cossey. In this riveting, phantasmagorical “what-if” tale, we follow the Mouse from his humble origins through a tangled web of trains, rocket ships, and stolen Shakespearean scripts! Will a haunting tune bring Mickey and Minnie together for the first time? Will Goofy find success as a... ferryboat driver? Award-winning Swiss cartoonist Bernard Cossey brings us an amazing Mouse adventure with a thoughtful, emotive twist. IDW, 2017. MMYSMH. HCW, 9x12, 64pg, FC $14.99

SCARLET TRACES Volume 1: War of the Worlds From 2004-2005. Recommended. By Ian Edginton. Art by D’Israeli. The ground-breaking series is collected in the first of two volumes. This includes the first of three sequel stories set a decade after the Martian invasion. When the bodies of young women are found washed up on the banks of the Thames, Captain Robert Autumn, retired soldier and adventurer, and his former Sergeant-Major Archie Currie are drawn into a mystery that leads them to the corridors of power and the Martian King! 2000 AD, 2017. COMST01. SC, 7X10, 144pg, FC $19.99 $17.99
