AN EVENING IN THE CLASSROOM
Highly Recommended. Foreword by Jeff A. Menges. Illustrator and painter Harvey Dunn was deeply influenced by Howard Pyle. Pyle’s Brandywine students became some of the most important and well-regarded artists of the twentieth century, including N.C. Wyeth, Frank Schoonover, Violet Oakley, Jessie Willcox Smith...and Dunn, who went on to influence the next generation of artists. During the course of an evening in 1934, while Dunn was teaching at Grand Central School of the Arts, Miss Taylor recorded his comments and criticisms. These notes later surfaced in a slim, limited-edition volume. Enhanced by Dunn’s striking woodcut images, the book provides a flavorful re-creation of the atmosphere in his classroom. Dover, 2019.

ARCHIE 1941

Recommended. By Mark Waid and Brian Augustyn. Art by Peter Krause. Archie Andrews and the gang get serious in a tale set in Riverdale on the eve and during World War II. First it’s everyone’s high school graduation! Then that last summer, a moment of peace before the war in Europe bears down, and Pearl Harbor is bombed. For Archie, Reggie and Moose, it’s enlistment and off to war in Europe! Solace alert—Veronica is the snooty rich girl, at least to start, and it’s Betty that has won Archie’s heart. CORTO MALTESE Vol 10 The Early Years

By Hugo Pratt. The protagonist of this tale, actually, is not the 18-year-old Corto, but Rasputin, a deserter from a Siberian rifle regiment, and the writer Jack London, who was a war correspondent in the region at that time. London is already friends with Corto and introduces the sailor to the unpredictable Russian, who even as a young man kills with disconcerting ease and is ready to lie and betray without hesitation. It is, however, “the beginning of a beautiful friendship” that continues throughout the series. Includes additional material that sets up the entire series, and never before published pages in which Corto and Rasputin were to start, and it’s Betty that has won Archie’s heart. Includes 22 pages of variant covers and a six-page interview with Waid and Augustyn. Very, very different but I liked it. Archie Comics, 2019.

HORIZONTAL COLLABORATION
Recommended. By Navie. Art by Carole Maurel. “Horizontal Collaboration” is a term used to describe the sexual and romantic relationships that some French women had with members of the occupying German forces during World War II. In this poignant, female-centered graphic novel created by writer/artist duo Carole Maurel and Mademoiselle Navie, the taboo of “sleeping with the enemy” is explored through the story of a passionate, and forbidden, affair. In June 1942, married Rose (whose husband is a prisoner of war) intervenes in the detainment of her Jewish friend and then accidentally embarks on a secret relationship with the investigating German officer. Korero Press, 2019. HORIZH. HC, 7x10, 144pg, FC $27.06 $24.95

LUCIFER Vol 1 The Infernal Comedy 7-page sketchbook bonus. Recommended. By Dan Waters and Neil Gaiman et al. Art by Max and Sebastian Fiumara et al. One of the Sandman Universe’s most mesmerizing characters—and very well drawn. The Prince of Darkness is missing, and from the look of things he’s not coming back. STALINGRAD Letter from the Volga Handsomely rendered in a highly stylized style. Recommended. By Antonio Gigl and Daniel Ortega. From August 1942 to February 1943 this model industrial city was the site of the bloodiest battle of WWII. Here is a fast-paced depiction of this titanic struggle: explicit, crude, and without concessions. Almost two million Russian and German soldiers died on each side. The key to his success lies in the dunes in relative solitude, a little greenhouse and a small campground, where teenager Andrew Chevillard. Roland has planned the perfect vacation for Fabienne to discuss their future. But when unimaginable tragedy strikes, Fabienne is left alone to process this. She decides to stay on the trip, bumping into strangers and strange people along the way. Beautifully drawn, translated from the French. Lion Forge, 2019. STAV01. HC, 7x10, 128pg, FC $19.95 $19.95

We are making a page or two of Rare and Out of Print books a regular feature here. See pages 23-24 and then look on the website at the entire selection. We only have one each of these, and they are doing increasingly well for us as we get new items listed each week.

It’s been another busy year for us. We love our new packer, Karena. She is extremely careful, and between her and Todd, they make sure your order will arrive in perfect condition. LaDonna, Diane and Todd are still handling the phones, Laurie and Harry work on new items, the catalog, the website, and our social media. My partner Anne and BOTH my sisters come in to help as needed. Happy Holidays from all of us. Thank you so much for your continued support.

Here’s the inside story of the “shops,” the eccentric publishers, the great editors, the young creators, and more. TwoMorrows, 2019.

THE MARVEL ART OF CONAN THE BARBARIAN
Highly Recommended. A gallery of classic Conan comic art—covers, interiors and splash pages, original art. With attributions and running commentary. Here is the very best, from seminal masterworks of Barry Windsor-Smith, to stunning interpretations by Gil Kane and Neal Adams, to a character-defining legacy by John Buscema, to Silvestri, Kaluta, Mignola and others! Introduction by Roy Thomas, afterward by Michael Allred. Marvel, 2019.
