ROY G. KRENKEL FATHER OF HEROIC FANTASY A Centennial Celebration
Our Highest Recommendation. By Andrew Steven Damsits, Barry Klugereman. A magnificent book and work of art at Krenkel’s entire career. Oversized. Loaded with previously unpublished work. One of the most renowned fantasy artists of the 20th century. Krenkel’s far-reaching influence on—and work with artists like Frazetta, Williamson, Kaluta and Jeffrey Jones, to name but a few, was immeasurable and cannot be overstated. Krenkel illustrated Edgar Rice Burroughs, Robert E. Howard and others—but much of his work, full-blown paintings and illustrations, often were unpublished and never seen by even his biggest fans. IDW, 2019. ROYKH. HC, 9x13, 304pg, PC $69.99 $49.99

FRANK E. SCHOONOVER AMERICAN VISIONS
Highly Recommended. Foreword by Andrew J. Sordoni, III and Preface by Robert T. Horvath. A wonderful new exhibition catalog from the Norman Rockwell Museum. The exhibition features Schoonover’s paintings for such classic stories as Kidnapped, Robinson Crusoe, Swiss Family Robinson, and Ivanhoe, illustrations for the novels of Zane Grey and Edgar Rice Burroughs. Schoonover’s long teaching career is examined, as is his role in establishing the Delaware Art Museum and obtaining seminal Pyle works on—-and work with—artists like Kaluta, Traci and Jeffrey Jones. Original paintings, drawings, and studies, archival photographs and examples of the artist’s daybooks and personal effects. Norman Rockwell Museum, 2018. FRANAV. SC, 8x9, 120pg, FC $30.00

News & Notes
Our cover feature for the Fall catalog, The Art of Mac Raboy came in late—now it’s here on page 3. I Go Pogo page 3 has been a surprise seller; I hope Calla/Dover does more of these. I like Calendar Girls, too. Little Lulu by Jon Stanley is being collected from the very beginning, in full color, by Drawn & Quarterly.—Introduction by Margaret Atwood (Handmaid’s Tale)

A massive fifteen-pound, oversize volume in a fancy box. Includes 17 fold-outs. Recommended. By John Stan- ley. Introduction by Roy Thomas. Beginning with his WPA etchings in the 1930s, Mac Raboy struggled to survive the Great Depression and eventually found his way into the comics. He perfected his art style on early stories of Dr. Voodoo, Zorro The Mystery Man, Bullet- man, Spy Smasher, The Green Lama and especially, Captain Marvel. Raboy went on to illustrate the Flash Gordon Sunday newspaper strip. Through extensive research and interviews with son David Raboy, and several of Mac Raboy’s Golden Age assistants, author Roger Hill brings Mac Raboy, into focus. TwoMorrows, 2019.

CALENDAR GIRLS, SEX GODDESSES, AND PIN-UP QUEENS OF THE 40S, 50S, AND 60S
Vintage full color pin-up photography, 1940s-1960s. Highly Recommended. Already a bestseller for us! It was the flamboyant stars of the 1930s that first began the era of pin-up. Stars like Betty Grable and Jean Harlow cued sexuality—many even posed nude. By the 1940s, this was a new pheno- menon that sold millions of calendars and magazines—nudes, but provative, never explicit, flirtatious but also freespirted. The images never crossed a certain moral line. And that’s what we have here, from Marilyn Monroe to Bettie Page, Diane Webber to Hollywood actresses moonlighting for some extra schiffer, 2019.

ARTISTS & ILLUSTRATION
Out of print--Almost Gone! Recomme...
THE OTHER WORLD: Asian Myth and Folktale Illustrations

Includes four fold-outs. Recommended. The Other World features the expressive works of fifty distinguished illustrators who are passionate about Asian myth and folklore. The book contains single Illustrations and, for the featured stories, a series of illustrations and an interview with each artist.

THE MONSTER ART OF BASIL GOGOS

Recommended. Produced under a partnership between Fantaco and Basil Gogos’ wife, Linda. They had access to all of Basil’s private sketches and illustrations for some of his most famous paintings, as well as many hundreds of preliminary sketches for never published projects. This shows you how Basil used his sketches to create his wonderful paintings—a mixture with monster (Wolfman, The Creature, Dracula, Frankensteins, etc.). His wife has written the introduction and has added many illustrations explaining many of the images. This is both a book for fans of Basil Gogos and for artists who want a glimpse into the creative mind of one of the genre’s most beloved artists. This book was a labor of love for all involved.

STANLEY KUBRICK’S CLOCKWORK ORANGE

Recommended. Includes film stills, behind-the-scenes photographs, screenplay drafts, and other exclusive material from Stanley Kubrick’s archives; background about the making of the film, interviews with Kubrick, and an illustrated biography and filmography; a fold-out film poster; and a complete DVD of the remastered film. Based on the futuristic novel by Anthony Burgess—a masterwork of cinematic satire. Taschen, 2019.

WILDEST DREAM: DREAMS AND DREAM ART

Recommended. Gary Panter, punk cartoonist from Slash magazine and Pee-Wee’s Playhouse, unleashes 174 pages of sketchbook mayhem from the past 45 years. Wildest Dream’s intense purple and neon color scheme references beatnik mimeo and zines, New Wave style, and No Wave color scheme references beatnik mimeo and zines. Panter’s art work revolves around Native Americans. Native Americans still exist, and in many cases are thriving, as they revive or maintain their culture. Schiffer, 2019.

THE OTHER WORLD: Asian Myth and Folktale Illustrations

Includes four fold-outs. Recommended. The Other World features the expressive works of fifty distinguished illustrators who are passionate about Asian myth and folklore. The book contains single Illustrations and, for the featured stories, a series of illustrations and an interview with each artist. Includes: Black Raven; White Swan; Qu Lan; Momo;—the Pearl Boy by Doyoon Kim; our favorite, The Goddess of Luoy by Ye Luying; The Rabbit, the Dragon King and the Turtle by Yei Yun; The Hanraakgyongy Biogy by Biogi; The Story of Cuoi by Tran Duc Dac; and two more. Gingko Press, 2019.

WALT DISNEY’S ULTIMATE INVENTOR

Recommended. By Don Iwerks and Leonard Maltin. Gorgeous never-before-published photographs, many of technical equipment and sets, and fascinating personal memories celebrate the half-a-century career of Disney Legend Ub Iwerks, a self-taught animator who became the first to animate Mickey and Minnie Mouse in Steamboat Willie. But he went on to become an exceptional draftsman, prolific innovator, and all-around technical genius. He directly collaborated with Walt to create some of the most loved moments throughout film and theme parks, using animatronics and specialty 360-degree cameras! Disney Editions, 2019.

ALGERNON BLACKWOOD’S The Willows
Recommended. Adapted by Nathan Cameron and Sam Ford. This immortal novella of extra-dimensional weirdness on the Danube comes to vivid life in graphic comic form thanks to the incredibly detailed black-and-white linework of talented newcomer, Sam Ford. Two adventurous women, one British, one Swedish, encounter strange horrors in the Hungarian wilderness of 1907. Floating World Comics, 2019. ALGW. SC, 8x10, 72pg, b&w $12.95

AMBER BLAKE
Recommended. By Jade Lagardère. Art by Butch Guice. First published by Glenat in France in 2017. Amber Blake was only a child when she was recruited to the Cleverland Institute, a school for gifted children, where she was promised a bright future. But predators hide in the school’s administration and, on the verge of exposing them, Amber finds herself fleeing for her life from the very man who recruited her. IDW, 2019. AMDBL. SC, 9x11, 112pg, PC $16.50

ANIMAL FARM THE GRAPHIC NOVEL Adapted and illustrated by Odyr. A full painted graphic adaptation of George Orwell’s timeless allegorical novel. “All animals are equal, but some animals are more equal than others.” In 1945, George Orwell, called “the conscience of his generation,” created an enduring, devastating story of new tyranny replacing old, and power corrupting even the in noblest of causes. Today it is all too clear that Orwell’s masterpiece is still fiercely relevant wherever cults of personality thrive, truths are twisted by those in power, and freedom is under attack. Houghton Mifflin Harcourt, 2019. ANIFH. HC, 8x10, 175pg, FC $24.99

BARBARELLA Vol 3 Burning Down the House
By Mike Carey. Art by Kenan Yarar. Barbarella has been lied to. Worse, she’s been weaponized, and someone’s going to answer for that, for sure. (Well, assuming she survives the judgement of the Esseverine sun-giants, and an armada of a thousand ships...) Dynamite, 2019. Mature Readers. BAR03. SC, 7x10, 120pg, FC $16.50

H.P. LOVECRAFT AGAINST THE WORLD, AGAINST LIFE

Recommended. By Michel Houellebecq. Introduction by Stephen King. A pictorial biography, sketch, part pronouncement on existence and literature, the best-selling French novelist Michel Houellebecq’s essay was published in France in 1981 and is the first non-fiction work by France’s most famous contemporary author. He praises his American alter ego’s style, which couldn’t be less like his own. Plus a fascinating 13-page (!) foreword by Lovecraft admirer Stephen King. This eloquently translated edition is an insightful introduction to both Lovecraft’s dark mythology and Houellebecq’s deadpan prose. Cernunnos, 2019.

ISLANDIA Vol 1 Boreal Landing

Recommended. By Marc Vaudrines. Sometime during the 1600s, Jacques, a young orphan from France, stows away aboard a fishing boat heading to Icelandic waters. Willing to brave the dangers and the rough life of a sailor, he is intent on one goal: to go to Iceland. There he hopes to find answers to the mysterious visions that have plagued him since childhood, to his unexplained ability to speak and read Icelandic, and to the strange phenomena that sometimes occur around him. 2019.

MATTÉO Book Two 1917-1918

From the creator of The Reprieve & Flight of the Raven. Recommended. By Jean-Pierre Gibiat. In this tour-de-force from award winning writer/artist Jean-Pierre Gibiat, the honor and glory sought in the Great War (seen in Book One of this series) have become mutilated and blurred memories. The *October Revolution in Russia creates hope in the hearts of the oppressed and draws in Mattéo, the son of a Spanish anarchist. He sees his beloved Juliet for a brief but memorable moment, and the next day, with his father’s friend Gervasio, Mattéo departs for Petrograd with camera in hand. But he may very well become victim of the disputes and differences between the various factions leading the Russian revolution. IDW, 2019.

REGIMENT The True Story of the SAS Book 1
First published in France in 2017. Recommended. By Vincent Bruegas. Art by Thomas Legrain. The true and incredible story of the origins of a unit that would become legendary during the Second World War, and remains to this day one of the finest Special Forces in the world. It’s 1941 and Europe is under the Nazi heel. Great Britain still holds out, but the situation worsens with every passing day. And in North Africa, gateway to the Middle East and its immense oil reserves, Rommel now threatens Egypt, keystone of British defences. In those desperate times, three unconventional officers band together to create a small, elite unit that will become a military legend: the SAS. Cinebook, 2019.

RONIN ISLAND Vol 1 Together in Strength
Together in Strength By Greg Pak. Art by Giannis Milonogiannis. After a mysterious attack devastates a great swath of 19th century Japan, Korea, and China, survivors from all three lands find refuge on a hidden island and build a new society. The orphaned daughter of Korean farmers, and Kenichi, son of a great samurai leader, have little in common except for a mutual disdain for the other. But these young warriors will have to work together when an army invades the island with shocking news: the Shogun has returned and the Island is expected to pay fealty in exchange for protection from a new threat...a mutated horde that threatens to wipe out all humanity. Boom!, 2019.

SABINA THE TEENAGE WITCH Vol 1
Collects #1-5 of the ongoing series, with bonus Archie and Sabrina issue. Recommended. By Kelly Thompson. Art by Veronica Fish, Andy Fish. “An effervescent update with gorgeous art.” - The AV Club. I and agree; rather than just another Archie spin-off, the art and story here really grab me just from sifting through the pages. I’m looking forward to reading this and may very well raise my recommendation. Sabrina is a teen witch who’s struggling with balancing the double life of high school and her burgeoning powers. Newly relocated to Greendale with her aunts Hilda and Zelda (also witches), Sabrina is trying to make the best of being the new girl in town. Archie Comics, 2019.

SKY HAWK
Highly Recommended. Two defeated samurai are exiled from Japan and come to America to start anew. Ending up in Crow Territory in North America, they rescue a young mother and her baby, encounter Crazy Horse, chief of the Oglalas, and their battle skills quickly win the respect of Indians on both sides of the war. One is an expert at ju jitsu and prefers a six-shooter; the other is a master archer and swordsmanship himself he introduces this series of stories with the highest praise. With film westerns on the wane, here he finds the classic American western has found a home. Fanfare, 2019.

ATOMIC WAR! & CAPTAIN COURAGEOUS Vol 1 1952-53. Recommended. By Ken Rice, Lou Cameron, Jim McLaughlin et al. This four-issue run focuses on the big End of Everything with mushroom clouds, bombs the size of city blocks, and catastrophic floods. Bombs work the best by Lou Cameron in every issue and on multiple stories, too. Plus a real oddity from 1942, the 64-page one-shot Capitan Courageous, packed with forgotten superheroes and adventurers in wartime stories. PS Artbooks, 2019.

KRAZY & IGNATZ 1916-1918
Gerge Herriman Library. Oversized. Highly Recommended. By George Herriman. For nearly 30 years, George Herriman’s masterpiece of wordless comics chronicled life in the South American country of Unland! Eighty years after the last comic strip was published in 1918, the haunting vistas, and beguiling brick throwing that makes this strip so special. Fantagraphics, 2019. KRAZ02. PRINCE VALIANT Vol 20
Sunday Pages, 1975-76. Highly Recommended. Written by Hal Foster, art by John Cullen Murphy. Aleta’s younger sister Helene is gambled away by her husband to a Consair mercenary, carving Prince Valiant and his Singing Sword into a deadly duel. Pirates, betrayals, and a journey to Athens. Includes a gallery of Hal Foster’s gorgeous art for the 1930 U.S. Naval Academy yearbook AND an interview with Med artist Angela Harmon, who assisted John Cullen Murphy on the Big Ben Bolt strip. THE COMPLETE LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE Vol 16
Daily & Sundays, 1932-1934. Recommended. By Harold Gray. The little orphan gets run over by a car, shot with a pistol, whacked with a bludgeon, firebombed in her bed, showing up in a tattooed sack, caught in a tornado, flung overboard, and thrown alive into a cemetery vault. Meanwhile, “Daddy” Warbucks, Punjab, and the Asp are a thousand miles away, with no clue to her whereabouts. LittOC, 2019. CL16H. HC. 11x8, 208pg, FC $49.99 $39.99

WARREN TUFTS’ COMPLETE LANCE 1955-1960

955–60. Our Highest Recommendation. By Warren Tufts. Fans have been asking for this ever since I first began selling comics 50 years ago. Warren Tuft’s masterpiece Lance includes the entire run of this magnificent comic strip in one volume with the Sundays in full glorious color! Each daily and Sunday has been beautifully restored by Manuel Caldas. Also included in this volume: an in-depth analysis of Tufts’ work on Lance by Zoran Djukanovic, biographical information, and more! Tufts was actually emulating Hal Foster’s Prince Valiant, right down to the lack of word balloons, an ironic narrator, and brilliantly designed artwork in every panel. This is one of the best Sunday adventure strips you will ever see.

CASEY RUGGLES A Saga of the West Vol 1

1949-55. Highly Recommended. By Warren Tufts. Warren Tufts is one those rare artist’s talents, hugely admired by his fellow creators. Tufts’ assistants were another talented list: Al Plastino (Superman artist), Edmond Good, Alex Toth (one of the super DC creator Ruben Moreira). Tufts is not so well known to the public today, but this small body of work—and then his next project, Lance—captured devoted admiration from fans AND other creators, for quality stories AND quality artwork. Casey Ruggles is a smart and brave adventurer, in and out of scrapes with nefarious villains and beautiful women.

THE CISCO KID Vol 1

Dailies, 1951-53. Highly Recommended. By Rod Reed and Jose Luis Salinas. Volume 1 begins at the very beginning, on January 15, 1951 to January 31, 1953. Based on the Western character created by short story writer O. Henry! The Cisco Kid starred in his own comic strip for over 15 years, bringing unparalleled authenticity and realism to “western” adventure. Loaded with amazing artwork by Jose Salinas, whose fine-line work rivals that of Frank Godwin and even Frazetta’s own work at the same time on Johnny Com et. Introduction written by Mad Magazine contributor Sergio Aragones, this is an amazing collection of Golden Age Western action! Classic Comics Press, 2011.

THE CISCO KID Vol 4

Dailies, 1957-59. Highly Recommended. Art by Jose Luis Salinas. Classic Comics Press continues its reprinting of the complete run of The Cisco Kid with an introduction by Zoran Djukanovic. While the television show of the Cisco Kid is often spoofed, the opposite is true of this strip itself. It is held in the highest regard, and many veteran comics artists and fans are glad to add this to their library. Fine penciling and brush work are Salinas hallmarks on this amazing strip, and he uses larger panels to portray action with amazing detail. Several strips are reproduced from the original art, which is even more impressive. Classic Comics Press, 2018.

Leaving the orphanage, Rusty is hired by wealthy racehorse owner Mr. Miles in the Bluegrass region of Kentucky. Soon Rusty is thrust into the world of horse racing—as well as danger, lost treasure, criminals, and a beautiful comrade! Introduction by Howard Chaykin, interview with Frank Godwin’s daughter Diane, plus a number of Godwin’s illustrations covering the span of his long and productive career, several in full glorious color!

JOHN CULLEN MURPHY’S BIG BEN BOLT
Dailies Vol 1
Feb 1950-May 52. Recommended. Introduction by Cullen Murphy. The first two years of a fine strip about a boxer and his adventures in and out of the ring. Murphy was hand-picked by Hal Foster to take over Prince Valiant and has often been dismissed by Valiant fans, including myself, for his work on Val. But this, more than 15 years earlier, shows an illustrator working in the same fine-line photo-realistic style of Alex Raymond and John Prentice. I kid you not! This is a very well drawn adventure strip that really reminds me of Rip Kirby! Classic Comics Press, 2010.

THE ADVENTURES OF BUCK O’RUE
Dailies Jan 1951- July 52 & Sundays May 1951-Dec 52. Recommended. By Dick Huemer & artist Paul Murry. Buck O’Rue is by two veteran Disney creators, writer Dick Huemer and artist Paul Murry. In the early 1950s they took some time off from working on Disney animation to create this long lost gem. It’s a spoof of the then-current craze for westerns and cowboy heroes. It is satisfyingly thick (300 pages!) with lots of detail about both creations and how the strip came to be. Classic Comics Press, 2012.

THE SPIDER MASTER OF MEN Vol 1
The very first Spider story with his origin. Highly Recommended. By Norvell Page, writing as Grant Stockridge. The Citadel of Hell & The Spider and The Sons of Satan. I find The Spider stories some of the best, even stacked up against Doc Savage and The Shadow. The Spider had a level of both daring and violence that is just so much fun...the police were as willing to gun him down as the criminals were, since he was, literally, a vigilante killer. He just killed bad guys, with absolutely no remorse! Packed with the superb historical extras that are the hallmark of Sanctum Books. Sanctum, 2013. SID01. SC, 7x10, 128pg, Text/b&w $14.95 ea:

THE SPIDER MASTER OF MEN Vol 2
Here are his first two adventures, straight out of 1933, in this two-book series from Sanctum. On a special mission for the President, The Phantom seeks to end the murderous reign of The Emperor of Death in his debut adventure! Then, he combats a mysterious Asian’s sinister plot in The Crime of Fu Kee Wong. Also from Thrilling Comics #53, the first Phantom Detective comic book story, illustrated by Justice Society and Flash artist E. E. Hibbard. Sanctum, 2012. PHDE01. CAP FURY Vol 1
Recommended. By Laurence Donovan and Steve Fish. In this new, original series, Captain John Fury and the crew of his super-ship The Whirlwind battle modern-day pirates, Nazis and leftover WWII villains from 1935 and 1937! First, after the law fails, Cap Fury follows a trail of vengeance to his brother’s murderers in “The Return of Redglene.” The Black Daylight” strikes at high noon, enveloping thousands in terror and suffering, and propelling Cap Fury on an urgent mission to Mexico’s Sierra Madres. Plus, another packed adventure of Sheridan Doozem from the back pages of The Shadow Magazine! Sanctum, 2014. CF01. SC, 7x10, 128pg, b&w $14.95 ea:

NICK CARTER Vol 1
Marked for Death & The Impossible Theft. Recommended. By Richard Womack and Thomas C. McClary writing as Nick Carter. The first of three double-story issues, from the same publisher as the outstanding Shadow and Doc Savage pulp reprints. This legendary master detective actually predates Sherlock Holmes! But he was reborn in the hard-boiled 1930s as a new hero from the pulp publisher, Street and Smith (publisher of The Shadow and Doc, among many other titles). Here is his debut appearance in “Marked for Death” from the first Nick Carter Magazine (March, 1933), designed as a sister title to Doc Savage. Sanctum, 2013. NC01. SC, 7x10, 144pg, b&w $14.95 ea:

Vols 2, 3: NC02, 03.

THE PHANTOM DETECTIVE Vol 1
The Emperor of Death & The Crime of Fu Kee Wong. Recommended. By D’Arcy Champion, writing as G. Wayman Jones. The pulp era’s longest-running pulp title—20 years—starred this handsome, masked detective in his signature black top hat. Here are his first two adventures, straight out of 1933, in this two-book series from Sanctum. On a special mission for the President, The Phantom seeks to end the murderous reign of The Emperor of Death in his debut adventure! Then, he combats a mysterious Asian’s sinister plot in The Crime of Fu Kee Wong. THE WHISPERER Vol 1
The Dead Who Talked & The Red Hatchets. By Laurence Donovan. “He knows no law but justice!” In this new original series, now collected by Sanctum, The Gray Wraith deals out vengeance in two hardboiled pulp thrillers from the most violent series ever published by Street & Smith. In “The Dead Who Talked,” the police commissioner is ordered to bring to justice the sinister super-villain. Then, the Long Arm of the Law becomes embroiled in the crucible of a bloody tong war between the Underworld and The Red Hatchets. BONUS: From the pages of Crime Busters, the first Norgil the Magician story by The Shadow’s Walter B. Gibson. BONUS: A White Whistle novel by Grant Stockridge, 2009. WH01. SC, 7x10, 128pg, Text/b&w $12.95 ea:

BATMAN CATWOMAN Maquette
Recommended. Tweeterhead presents the newest edition from the Super Powers Collection of DC Maquettes: Catwoman! This is BIG, and the box is even bigger, almost two feet tall. The statue is an impressive 16 inches tall, bulkwhip in hand and with a heavy, nicely detailed base. It’s got a ladder, a cat, a treasure chest of money and jewels. Alluring yet devious, with a nicely painted face and figure. We think it’s very nicely done, and it’s one of the largest statues we’ve handled. A classic Batman femme fatale nemesis in the grand old comics style. Tweeterhead, 2019.

BACAT: 16" tall, FC ........................................ $275.00
DC BOMBSHELLS MARY SHAZAM! Statue
Numbered & limited, 5000. Recommended. Designed by Ant Lucia. Mary Marvel has grown up, and is she a beauty! The favorite younger of the Marvel family is now a drum major and the newest addition to the DC Bombshells statue line. OK, ok, she’s now Mary Shazam, according to DC. But this still captures that Fawcett magic that fans so love from the 1940s, at least I think so as a fan myself. Except that little Mary Marvel is now a beautiful young lady, with a winning smile and a salute to her fans.

Design by Ant Lucia, sculpted by Tim Miller. It’s a keeper for me...one you may not want to miss! DC, 2019.

HARLEY QUINN RED, WHITE & BLACK Statue by Greg Horn
Numbered & limited, 5000. Recommended. By Greg Horn. Greg Horn’s bold, highly detailed style has helped him become one of the most recognizable cover artists in comics today. His take on Harley Quinn joined with the mysterious Batman Who Laughs is a visceral delight for fans of the character. Cast in polyresin, the design is based on Horn’s variant cover from Dark Knights: Metal. This barefoot Harley is holding a creepy, haunting mask, the face of the Batman Who Laughs. A unique and nightmarish addition to the Red, White & Black collection. DC, 2019.

Recommended. By Olivia De Berardinis. Sexy high quality enamel pin by Olivia De Berardinis features icon Bettie Page in leopardskin lingerie. (We’re not sure why it’s called “Tattoo Flash” since she has no tattoos, but it’s their title!) Handsomely die-cut right around her full figure. Made of stainless steel and measures about 2 inches high. Includes 2 posts and backs so it always stays upright and secure! Produced by Olivia herself, not a licensed product from elsewhere.

Ozome, 2019.

ALVARADO’S PIN-UP NUDES 2nd Edition
16 extra pages of new art. Highly Recommended. By Robert Alvarado. Since first published in 2013, this has become a bestseller in bold pin-up photography. In this second edition, Alvarado uses his innovative technique to blur the line between photography and illustration—when sublime costuming to add color, texture, humor, and homage to his images, it’s all about gorgeous, bold, strikingly sexy women here...160 pin-up full nudes. High-heeled beauties to sexy Storm Trogdor and the rocker girl of the girl next door. Alvarado uses his creativity in themes, models, and styling to produce work steeped in popular culture with nods to pin-up masters like Vargas and Elvgren. Schiffer, 2019. Adult Material.

THE LITTLE BOOK OF BUTTS
Back in stock. Recommended. Edited by Dian Hanson. The original Big Butt Book featured a great cross-section of delectable rears from the 1950s to the present day. They’ve added 30 new photos. In these 150 shots you’ll see the big and the bountiful, then the bigger and more bountiful, in black and white (for the early days) and in color for the recent and contemporary sightings. The models may be largely anonymous, but their curves are legendary, and now they’re collected in a discreet little package affordable by all. The renowned Dian Hanson provides a neat little introduction, “I Like Big Butts,” in English, German and French. Taschen, 2019. Adult Material. LBBT. SC, 5x7, 194pg, PC $10.00
